Eddie Wren, last Tuesday evening, was the guest of honor at a farewell party given by his sister Mrs. Matt Griggs, at the latter's home in South Bisbee. The guest of honor left Wednesday evening for the Northwest where he will be married within a few days. The party was a very enjoyable one, excellent refreshments being served, and fine entertainment had during the evening.

Mrs. Jank Minburn of Douglas is a visitor in Bisbee. Dr. Watkins left last evening for New Orleans and from there he will sail for the tropics visiting Panama and Cuba before returning to Bisbee.

Miss Hazel Roberts entertained a number of her friends at her home in Tombstone Canyon in honor of her birthday, games and music being enjoyed and a delicious supper served. The guests were Mrs. Lena and V. Moore, L. and G. Armstrong, H. Doan, C. Madson, C. and E. Sharp, Edna and Edna Dixon, Masters Sharp, Wilson and Madson.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ochs returned last week from a visit to the Pacific Coast.

Greenway Albert returned Thursday evening from an extended visit to the East.

Misses Ellen, Isadore and Florence Cunningham and Miss Shanta Trojans are expected home on Wednesday from Menlow Park, Cal., where they have been attending school, and will pass the holidays in Bisbee.

The students and faculty of the high school hiked up the canyon and had a luncheon in the open, last evening. A number attended and a good time was reported by all.

The St. John's Club spent Saturday afternoon on the mountains, hunting for the Christmas greenery with which to decorate the church for the Christmas program.

The St. John's Club met last Monday at the rectory, and spent the evening most pleasantly, and delicious refreshments were served at a late hour.

The many friends of Mrs. W. E. McKee will be pleased to learn that she is recovered from her recent illness.

The following invitation has been received by a number of Bisbee society folks: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Briggs request the pleasure of your company on Wednesday, Dec. twenty-nine, at half past eight, Douglas County Club, Pinalia.

Mr. T. C. Pelham of El Paso entertained with a dinner at the Country Club, Wednesday evening. The menu consisted chiefly of game and a quail pot pie was the feature. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. Norman, Mr. and Mrs. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Rollins, Mr. and Mrs. Sturdevant, Mrs. Goring and Mrs. Pelham.

Mrs. T. M. Newell entertained the Dorcas Society at the Y. W. C. A. on Thursday afternoon. The afternoon was spent most pleasantly in sewing and delicious refreshments of fruit salad, cheese sandwiches, angel cake and coffee were served. The guests were Mesdames Sinclair, Julliff, Butler, Sheetz, Lloyd, Hudson and Mitchell.

The dance to be given Christmas Eve at Knights of Columbus Hall, by the ladies of the Catholic Church, is expected to be the most successful social event tendered by them in a long time. The Catholic ladies have acquired an enviable reputation for conducting delightful social affairs.

The Ladies' Bowling Club will entertain their friends with a dance, New Year's, at the Odd Fellows Hall. Music will be furnished by Phillips' Orchestra, and a jolly time is expected by all.

The Baptist Ladies' Aid held a most successful bazaar, Tuesday, at Sasse's Candy Store. The sale was of hand work and embroidery and there was a number of beautiful articles on display.

One of the main social features of the week was the birthday surprise given by friends of Mrs. E. D. Simson at her residence, on Sunday evening. During the evening cards, games and music were the features of entertainment and there were raffles for the ladies and cigars for the gentlemen. At a late hour refreshments were served, and a number of beautiful and useful gifts were presented to Mrs. Simson by her friends. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Spaulding, Mr. and Mrs. Barkell, Mr. and Mrs. Carnahan, Mr. and Mrs. Ashby, Mr. and Mrs. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Yarcho, Mr. and Mrs. A. The Ladies' Bowling Club met with Miss Lucile Watkins, Wednesday evening, and a regular business meeting was held and plans were completed for entertaining their different friends with a dance on New Year's evening. Delightful refreshments of salad, sandwiches, olives, cake and coffee was served to a number of guests. Those present were Mesdames Verfurth, Scott, Warner, Hankin, Sheetz, O'Donnell, Tonkin and the hostess.

The St. John's club will meet Monday evening in decorating the church for Christmas.

The Twentieth Century Club met at the Y. W. C. A. on Tuesday afternoon, an interesting program being rendered. Late in the afternoon, fruit salad, orange baskets, wafers, cake and coffee were served.

The Y. W. C. A. cafeteria at the Grace Widess Memorial Home is a most popular rendezvous, these days. Not only do residents of the Warren District appreciate its attractiveness as an eating place, but they thoroughly enjoy the delightful social atmosphere of the cafeteria. The favorable comments of many pleasing patrons continues to result in increased business for the cafeteria, from day to day.

The Bisbee Woman Club held their regular meeting Friday afternoon and the afternoon was spent in Book Review. Mrs. Rhodes gave a very interesting talk on the "Servant of the House." Mrs. Vance sketched the "Harbor" and Mrs. Blodsoe gave a summary of a new book. Mrs. Frankenberg gave several selections on the piano, and Mrs. Roberts sang. Three new members were elected, Mesdames Ben Frankenberg, Fitzgerald and Miss Gladys Hodgson. After the meeting and program, lady fingers, tied with a green and red ribbon in a pretty color scheme and tea and coffee were served by Mesdames Blodsoe, High and Johnson.

The Warren District Country Club will entertain with a New Year's Ball on Dec. 31, at the clubhouse.

"Going Through Bisbee Shops I Noticed That--"

Have you seen some of that pretty new china at the Norris Studio? There are some of the prettiest patterns in salad and mayonnaise sets, vases and plates that you ever saw and very reasonable.

Silk hose make some of the prettiest gifts, and the Phelps Dodge have some of the smartest, all hand embroidered, or with inserts of lace, and some embroidered to resemble boots, with the buttons and tassels and all. Bronze book racks are dandy gifts for a man.

The hair has some of the new washable kid gloves. These gloves are guaranteed to stand washing without injuring the kid, or spoiling the appearance of the glove.

Skirts may be widened at the hips by yokes, overskirts or most effective of all, by pockets with the hands in them—Vague.

Though convalescent soldiers are everywhere, and though great gray carriages with red crosses are everywhere, Paris is Paris for a' that, and fashions and the smartest of gowns and hats still find their way to America.

The new jewel cases are formed like miniature soldiers caps.

Peacock jewelry is all the rage in the East, and Phelps Dodge has some of the classic new rings, set with the purple and green rhinestones.

The fancy for trailing corlages is pretty adapted in the new evening gowns that the Bisbee shops are showing.

Rejoicing in the end of the recent forlorn and petticoated era, the bon-doir blossoms anew in tuffs, frills and silken turbulences.

To remodel last year's evening wrap—Everyone finds that the main difference is in the fulness of this year's wrap. Put wide collars and cuffs of some broadened material or some Dresden velvet, and then place a deep circular dounce of the same material at the bottom. That will give the coat the new look and you will find that it is a style widely adopted in the books of fashions.

There is much to be said in favor of brilliant colors for the children and such a pretty one that matches their swift movements and bubbling spirits can be fashioned of American Beauty velvet or taffeta and trimmed with gray astrachan or silver.

Such pretty dollies at the stores and just-dressed so cunningly—and with all the desired complexion. They can be found at the leading shops.

An Old Time Sampler Calendar is a great favorite for gifts this year. They are reproductions of the old samplers and are in different designs.

Stucco baskets in ivory and pink roses are such nice gifts. The Fair has a wonderful assortment.

Dresses of silk illusion in all pretty evening shades and trimmed with hands of opalescent sequins are greatly favored for new year frocks, as are taffeta and tulle and flowers.

Handkerchiefs are a most welcome gift these cold and blustery days and there are some of the most beautiful patterns that have ever been made, some in Little Boy Blue, Jack and Jill, the cutest Run Donnet Babble for the little folk, and Madeira embroidery, Carrickmacross and other beautiful embroidered looks for the older folk.

Articles of furniture are pleasing gifts, tea wagons, book tables, telephone stands and desks.

Toilet articles are dandy and appreciated gifts and Gardenia powders and perfumes are the very best. These toilet articles are more after the standard of Mary Garden, and every woman will be greatly delighted with their fragrance and the lasting qualities. The Ball Drug Co. is sole agents in Bisbee.

For the hostess—electrical gifts. Your Christmas table can be made so very attractive by putting them in pretty china bowls, and placing a sunny little blue bird on the edge with a celluloid butterfly hovering over the blossoms.

New novelties are rose vases for the buffet or dressing table. They usually come in sets, one for pink roses and the other for red. Place them at opposite ends of the table and the effect is charming.

Strips of pearls are greatly used in trimming of the gowns, and now practically the only ornament worn about the neck is a rope of pearls and beads are very good.

Door steps are nice gifts and appreciated by every housewife. Gifts in bronze for the men are nice articles and highly appreciated, also the bronze picture frames and silver deposit, while the smoking sets and trays are very neat.

By the way, have you seen the newest thing in picture frames? They are cut glass and in the prettiest designs. Bill-books and check-books of that pretty cordova leather at Gilman's. What man wouldn't be tickled over one for Christmas?

For-get-me-nots of gifts are the silver cigarette cases.

Candelabra are again in style, and a hostess would greatly appreciate one for her table.

How nice and comfy are the Pullman slippers that all fold up so nicely in a leather case.

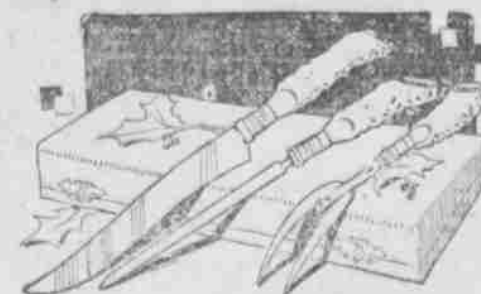

For 'O My Heart is a new perfume and powder, and the English company that manufactures it used this slogan "Sure, I Came Only This Night," but from that instant Peg won her way into all the hearts of the world.

Solree, the new silk, it is guaranteed, can be washed in warm water and ivory soap without destroying its richness and lustre; a feature not obtained in any other dress silks. This silk is used exclusively by Hickson, America's foremost designer, and he recommends the silk, in a letter to Vogue, and the same is published in the December issue.

The latest article in handbags is the Cloopatra and made of chiffon velvet and handsomely fitted.

Stripes still play an important part in the new winter hosiery.
